

Event Manager, Sports

Sporting Republic is looking for a highly motivated Event Manager to our growing team. Reporting to the Director, the individual will be based in Hong Kong and take specific responsibility for delivering a range of sport events across Asia.

Major responsibilities include:

- To take charge of all stages of organising events, from planning to execution.
- To take a lead role in managing and arranging the logistics and coordination of our events.
- To provide coordination and project management with clients, suppliers and venues to ensure event success.
- To manage and motivate junior staff.
- To source and maintain relations with venues, suppliers and event partners.

You should have:

- University degree with a minimum of 5 years relevant experience in event management or sport agency.
- Good command of spoken and written English. Cantonese and Putonghua a plus.
- Self-motivated, detail-minded and an outgoing personality.
- Ability to work effectively under pressure and maintain a positive attitude.
- Willingness to travel within the Asia Pacific region.

Sporting Republic offers ongoing training and personal development opportunities for individuals who wish to develop a career within the sport industry. We are a highly supportive team-based culture and offer competitive packages for our staff.
